ACCOMMODATIONS:

Whether solo or with a group, at any given time, a maximum of 12 guests will have exclusive access to the ultra-secluded Sportsman's Club with four private luxury log cabins and "man cave" Clubhouse perched on French Creek, enjoying access to its breathtaking environment and to the notable sporting experiences it affords in the American West—in a destination coveted for generations. Single parties of six (6) or more have "buyout" exclusivity of the property.

The Club's four luxuriously appointed cabins are inspired by the natural rugged beauty of Wyoming's high mountain desert landscape, offering the ideal retreat after a day spent in the great outdoors.

One (1) Luxury Cabin Residence—Includes a private bedroom, private bathroom, living room with gas fireplace, kitchenette and screened-in porch overlooking French Creek.

Three (3) Luxury Cabin Suites—Each lavishly restored cabin includes well-appointed amenities, private bathrooms, mudroom cubbies and upscale bedding, and a deck overlooking French Creek.

Eight (8) Riverbend Guest House Rooms (2.5-mile drive)—Available for additional lodging. Each bedroom has a private bathroom and offers the ultimate in single-occupancy accommodations, along with a great room featuring kitchen and living areas, only a stone's throw from the banks of the North Platte River.

DESTINATION

The French Creek Sportsman's Club at Brush Creek Ranch is located outside of Saratoga, in the North Platte River Valley of south-central Wyoming. This exclusive sporting enclave has been reimagined on the originating pioneer homestead of the historic Sanger Ranch, known for over a century as the supreme fly fishing and hunting destination in the West. This Brush Creek Ranch Collection destination is nestled between the million-acre Medicine Bow National Forest and Sierra Madre mountain ranges.

FOOD & WINE

The dining experience at French Creek Sportsman's Club offers inspiration from the surrounding Rocky Mountain setting with a focus on fresh and hearty regional fare by the private resident Chef de Cuisine. A farm-to-table approach is taken wherever possible, including the Ranch's own Akaushi cattle, which are the cornerstone of the beef program.

Anchored by the luxurious Covey Dining Cabin with an open concept Chef's kitchen, the artfully prepared daily menus are delivered in a rustic casual manner with upscale touches and complemented by an excellent selection of fine wines, premium beers and spirits, sourced from local breweries and distilleries.

Outdoors, the Clubhouse provides a spacious dining and entertainment patio with a firepit and breathtaking views of French Creek and the surrounding area. Customized meals and al fresco dining opportunities are also available for days spent in the field or on the water.

RETREATS & OCCASIONS

French Creek Sportsman's Club delivers an ideal location for small corporate retreats, YPO/WPO forum retreats, bachelor parties, father/son trips, avid sportswomen and family trips. Special occasions can be hosted annually with a focus on fly fishing events in the summer and shooting/upland hunting events in the fall, often partnering with industry professionals from Orvis, Beretta and others.

EXPERIENCES

At French Creek Sportsman's Club, our elite team of luxury hospitality and adventure outfitter professionals ensure a customized luxury sporting experience, tailored to your preferences—from blissful fly fishing on 20 miles of private water to shooting sports, including upland bird and big game hunts and unlimited access to your very own private gun range. The selections are as endless as our stunning landscape, and nearly everything is included in your stay.
